Pudding basins, from £22.45, T.G.Green

The distinctive blue and white design of Copish Ware makes it a classic choice for keen cooks

Invest in a new set of knives. Each knife in this clever new range has a rounded tip, making it much safer to use

Point-less knives, from £5 for a 3.5" parer to £50 for a knife block with five knives, Prestige

YH hint

There's no shame in taking a few shortcuts when it comes to home cooking. Keep your eyes open for products which will give a quick-fix solution and help save you time in the kitchen. Lakeland, for example, offers a huge range of ingenious ideas, including baking parchment which is pre-cut into circles or squares.

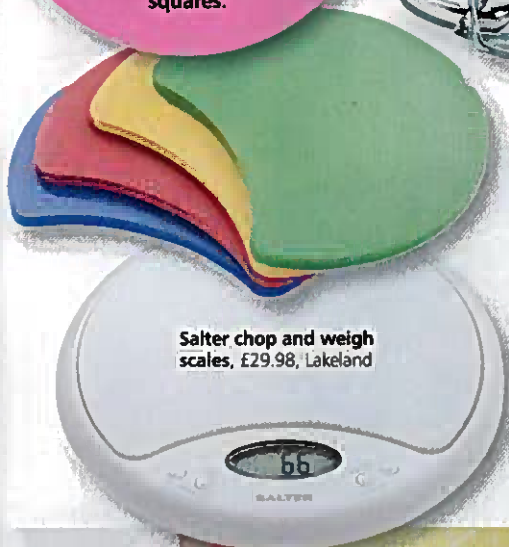

Rachel Allen stand mixer, £144.99, Argos

This stylish mixer with a five-litre bowl has six speeds, plus a pulse function. It comes complete with a balloon whisk, beater and dough hook attachments, as well as some tasty recipe ideas

These handy scales mean you can use one of the colour-coded boards to chop your food, then put the whole lot back on the scales for weighing

Salter chop and weigh scales, £29.98, Lakeland

The sides of this award-winning chopping board can be popped up, forming a chute so chopped and diced food can be tipped easily into a pan

Chop2Pot, from £11, Joseph Joseph

Kit out your kitchen with all the essentials you'll need to whip up your favourite dish

Sebastian Conran for John Lewis utensil set, £18; butter dish, £15; nesting bowl set, £45; saucepan set, £150; trivet set, £18; pepper and salt grinders, £20 each; chopping board, £30, all John Lewis

Haier AFL631CS/U fridge-freezer, around £599.99, Comet

The latest Haier A+ rated fridge-freezer has two large freezer drawers, meaning that frozen food can be kept at two different temperatures if needed, and accessed quickly and easily in one simple move

Keep your recipe book within view with this useful holder

Natural recipe book stand, £10.50, Debenhams
