

Thursday 4 February 2010
www.independent.co.uk
Number 7,274
£1 ●●●●

Pothole nation – a £10bn scandal
News, page 3

THE INDEPENDENT

HARI MEEETS CAMILERON

A unique and revealing interview In Life

MPs and expenses:

the final

The Trent
Best

Slicers and dicers

CHOSEN BY LARISSA KHATCHIK
independent.co.uk/indybest comes with two inter-changeable blades, can make French fries or chunky chips, and has plenty of retro charm. Price: £12.99 Lakeland.co.uk

Chef'n

If you want neat, uniform slices every time, the 'sleek-slice' mandoline allows you to cut in a variety of ways, with four thickness settings. It's designed with ridges to hold onto the edge of a bowl, so you can slice straight into a salad bowl or other container.

Price: £16.50
Johnlewis.com

Kitchen Craft

The 'Andy Wedger' takes away all the hassle in chopping any fruit or vegetable. A clever design with a lift-out dish and non-slip handles means the job is done in seconds.

Price: £13.31
Kitchenware.co.uk

Joseph Joseph

This beautifully designed herb chopper can also be used for cutting garlic, nuts, vegetables and even chocolate. Wonderfully compact, it is a non-slip chopping board and a double hatchoir in one.

Price: £18
Josephjoseph.com

