

Thursday 3 December 2009
www.independent.co.uk
Number 7,220
£1.00

Inside the world's most dangerous city
Special report from Mogadishu, pages 28-29

THE INDEPENDENT

CRASH! THE DOWNFALL OF AN AMERICAN ICON

Rupert Cornwell and James Lawton on the Tiger Woods scandal News, 10-11

Warning: Do not take this picture

Anger over abuse of terror laws after police stop people taking photos at cathedrals, tourist landmarks, high streets - and

The Ten Best

Gifts for foodies

CHOSEN BY BIBBY SOWRAY
independent.co.uk/indybest

Vitamin

◉ The clever 'X-Tray Herb Planter' consists of five chic ceramic herb pots that interlock and can be configured in several different ways, thus making it possible to grow fresh herbs without using up unnecessary space.

Price: £49.50
stylishlife.co.uk

Miller Harris

Neal's Yard Dairy

◉ Give the gift of cheese this Christmas with Neal's Yard Dairy. The established London artisanal cheese retailer will hand-pick the very best cheeses of the month to be delivered to the recipient's door, not just once but quarterly.

Ideal for the cheese connoisseur.
Price: £198
Nealsyarddairy.com

Joseph Joseph

◉ The ingenious 'Nest 8' solves the problem of multiple kitchenware and minimal storage space. In a rainbow of colours and comprising mixing bowls, measuring spoons, a sieve, strainer and juicer, this set provides everything an aspiring chef could want.

Price: £35; Josephjoseph.com

Carluccio's

◉ Italian panettone has been imported as a Christmas tradition for British foodies, and this one is a classic. Made with butter, candied peel and sultanas, it's the perfect alternative to a filling Christmas pudding.

Price: £15.95
Carluccios.com

Nespresso

◉ Simple, compact and completely fuss-free, the Nespresso Magimix M100 is the ultimate gift for those who are devoted to coffee.

The accompanying Aeroccino jug also froths and steams milk for homemade cappuccinos.

Willie's Cacao